

CRAC, officially a division of ESC Corporate Services Ltd.

MONTREAL, May 13, 2014 – Late Friday afternoon on May 9, 2014, ESC Corporate Services Ltd. finalised the transaction confirming the acquisition of CRAC (Corporate Research and Analysis Centre).

CRAC will continue to offer corporate services, due diligence searches, trade-mark services and corporate accessories. As a result of the transaction, CRAC will now offer a wider range of services, notably services extra provincially throughout Canada, United States and Internationally.

CRAC will continue to serve you with the same high quality standard that has built its reputation over the last 35 years. You can also continue to count on a management team that you already know well:

- Me lana Alexova, Manager of trade-marks
- Kelly Cardoso, Team Lead (interim) for corporate services and due diligence searches
- Francis Houle, Manager of shipping and corporate accessories
- Denis Livernoche, Manager of name searches
- Anne Roy, Office Manager
- Me Pierre Bilodeau, Managing Director

The departments are also composed with the same team of employees who will continue to provide you with the best quality services.

CRAC will operate under its own name and conduct business from its present location at 1080 Beaver Hall Hill, 17th Floor, Montréal.

About ESC Corporate Services Ltd. (ESC)

ESC is a national corporate services provider focused exclusively on the provisioning of customized public record search and registration services and supplies to law firms, corporations and national institutions across Canada.

Founded in 2009 following the acquisition of the Ontario corporate services division of Dye & Durham, ESC's team is renowned for its corporate services expertise, focused commitment on customer service and high volume transaction processing relating to nationwide search and registration services. Offering real time access to public corporate records across Canada, the United States and more than 26 countries and counting, ESC is a single point solution for organizations seeking exception free integrated outcomes to online corporate due diligence, incorporation services and supplies, customer on-boarding and compliance or credit solutions.

ESC is a licensed service provider under contract to ServiceOntario.

For more information, visit www.eservicecorp.ca or www.crac.com

Pierre Bilodeau

Tel: 514 861-7953, pbilodeau@crac.com